

AAC Kit-School Pack

AAC kit is an on-the-go kit, packed with printed and customisable light-tech activities designed for students with special needs or with English language learning goals. Developed by experienced special education teachers and speech therapists.

8 Thematic Activities

Activity schedule, Vocabulary, Book, Bingo and Board game, Crafts and much more!

AAC Kit for Professionals

On average more than a week* is saved from developing the included activities from scratch.

AAC Kit for Students

Everyone can participate. The activities can be easily used right away at anyplace by anyone with little pre-learning.

**Our development team took an week to develop the included 8 activities from scratch*

Designed for Education

Perfect complimentary for places such as resource room in Special Education Schools, Assessment centres, Speech and language therapy clinics and English learning classes.

Support communication skills, literacy, positive behavior development.

PCS Fully Adopted

Fully adopts PCS (picture communication symbols), combined with pictures and texts, easy for students to learn through visual support and integrate the learning into school and life.

AAC Communication Book included

Designed especially for children with no or limited communication skills, support effective communication and participation, and enable barrier-free interaction.

Environmentally Friendly And organised storage

Made of PVC, an environmentally friendly and waterproof material, repeatedly use allowed, applicable to special schools, hospitals and institutions. Materials for each unit is stored in a tote bag and organized with labels.

